CELEBRATING OUR CENTENARY

ENGINEERS AUSTRALIA

Eminent Speaker's Breakfast

Please join WIE for a wonderful opportunity to learn from esteemed speaker and network with all sectors of the industry.

6:45am-9:00am, Thurs 19 September 2019

Venue: Level 2 Stateroom, Hilton Hotel, 488 George St Sydney, NSW 2000

Women in Engineering Sydney invites you to attend the Annual Eminent Speakers Breakfast at Hilton Hotel Sydney. An opportunity to indulge in one of the finest breakfasts in the city while listening to our esteemed speakers who will share insights on how they navigated their careers in the industry.

SPEAKERS

Narelle Underwood | NSW Surveyor General & Director Survey Operations, NSW Department of Customer Service

Narelle Underwood was appointed the 25th Surveyor-General of NSW in 2016 - the youngest person in over 200 years and the first female to hold the position. A major role within State Government

In 2018 Narelle was listed in the inaugural NSW Top 50 Public Sector Women and was awarded the 2017 UNSW Young Professional Award for Outstanding Achievement.

Anna Squire | Australasia Rail Business Leader, Arup.

Anna is a chartered civil engineer and experienced project director who has led large, multidisciplinary design teams on major rail projects in Australia, the USA and the UK.

Anna moved from London to Arup's Sydney office in 2007 where she subsequently held the role of NSW & ACT Infrastructure Leader, leading a team of more than 200 staff. In 2017, Anna was appointed Australasia Rail Business Leader, responsible for the strategy and growth of Arup's Rail Business in Australia, New Zealand and parts of Asia.

engineersaustralia.org.au

TICKETS

Member	$50
Non Member	$75
Table of ten	$450

REGISTER NOW